The new organizational structure of Oltchim S.A.

The company informs the shareholders about the approval of a new organizational chart, effective as of December 14, 2018, resulting from the completion of operating assets sales transactions with Chimcomplex Borzești and Dynamic Selling Group.

The new organizational structure includes Vâlcea Division, consisting of 6 compartments and a sector with the mothballing units, and Bradu Division – Pitești, with 4 compartments and a sector with the mothballing units.

The number of employees decreased to 177. The personnel reduction was achieved through new individual labor contracts concluded by a number of 1356 employees with the buyers, and through collective redundancy of a number of 436 employees, who received redundancy payments according to the provisions of the collective labor contract in force.

The management of this new organizational structure is provided by the special administrator, Mr. Bogdan Stănescu, who has subordinate several advisers.
